Overpower Committee

Wed, Nov 14, 2018, 4:05 PM

Hello fellas,

I wanted to send a welcome email to everyone. We are going to start the process shortly of moving a few items along that we have planned for the year moving forward. I will cover more of the details tomorrow in an email. The size of this "Approval Committee" will not change. We want to keep it at this size. The 4 of us and I will be communicating for my brother as well. So that makes 5, which is best for voting and general discussions.

As I mentioned, I will send a more detailed email tomorrow to discuss the direction of things, and then if there are any questions or comments, please make sure to "Reply to All" when writing anything within the committee so that everyone is kept informed.

Thanks a lot, and I hope everyone is excited to form and change this game to be the best it can be.

Thu, Nov 15, 2018, 12:52 PM

Good afternoon fellas,

I have attached a few documents and some photos for proposed cards that we will be attending to. There is a Justification template that we will be following with new cards being introduced to the game.

Good afternoon fellas,

I have attached a few documents and some photos for proposed cards that we will be attending to. There is a Justification template that we will be following with new cards being introduced to the game.

Also I have attached the presentation that we showed to everyone at the K2 event this past year. (for timeline consideration of how we are approaching each specific card type on PAGE 9)

For the attached photos. I would like Sean to take care of the justification for the other "Gamma Terror" any heroes considerations. I would like Nate to address the "Death From Above" alternatives. I and/or my brother will be taking care of the "A-next" alternatives.

With this process going forward, when required, please keep all photos and links to photos within the justification documents.

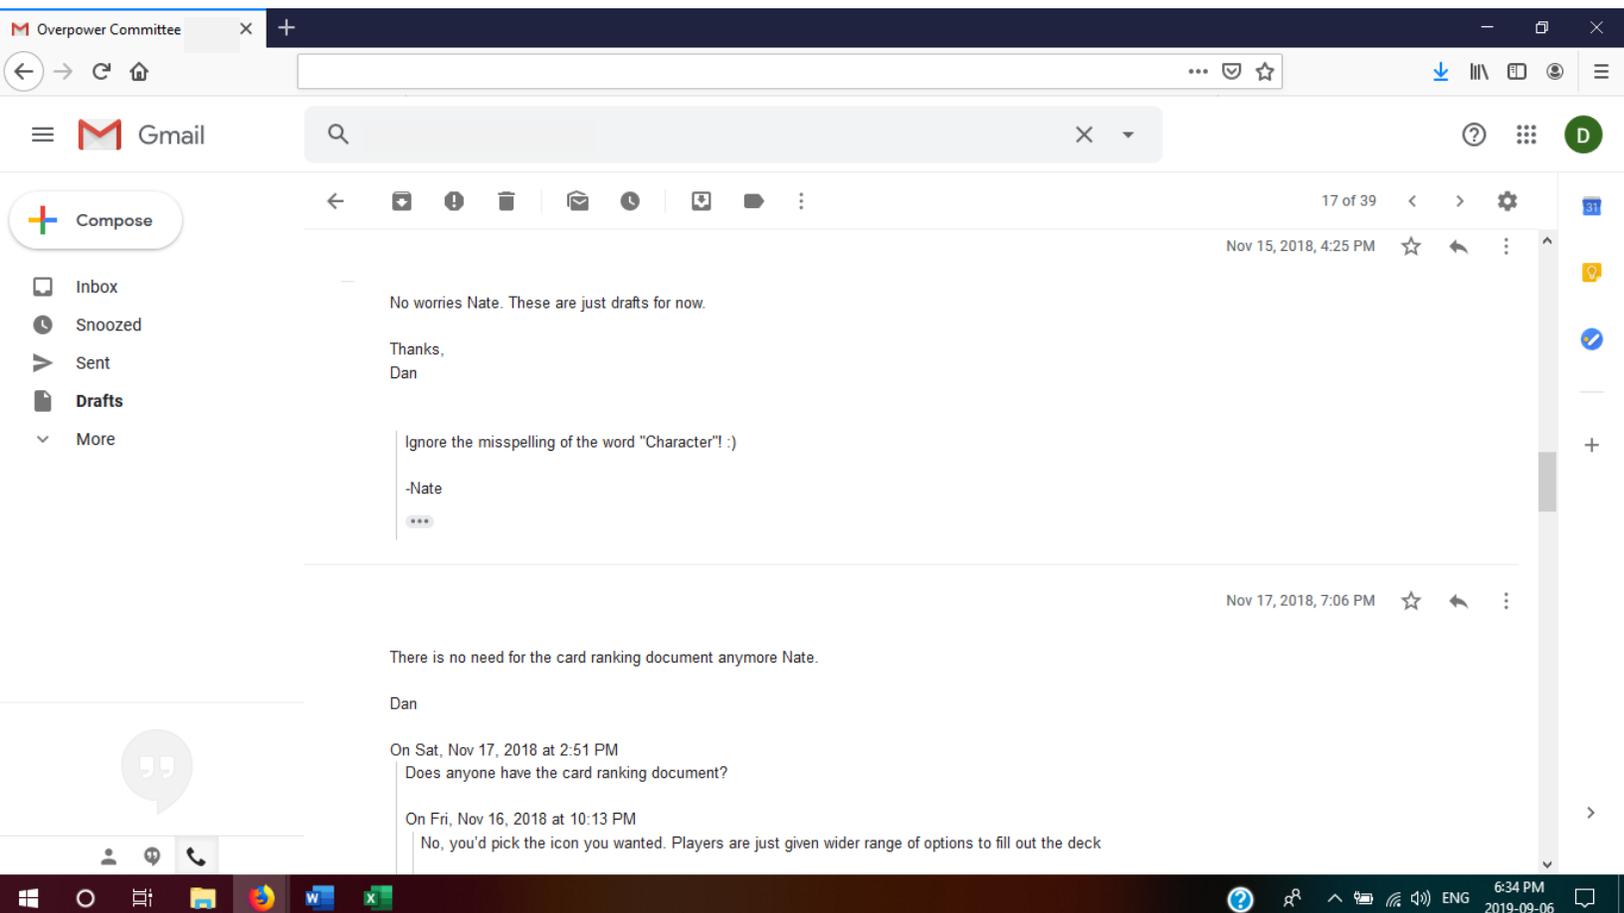

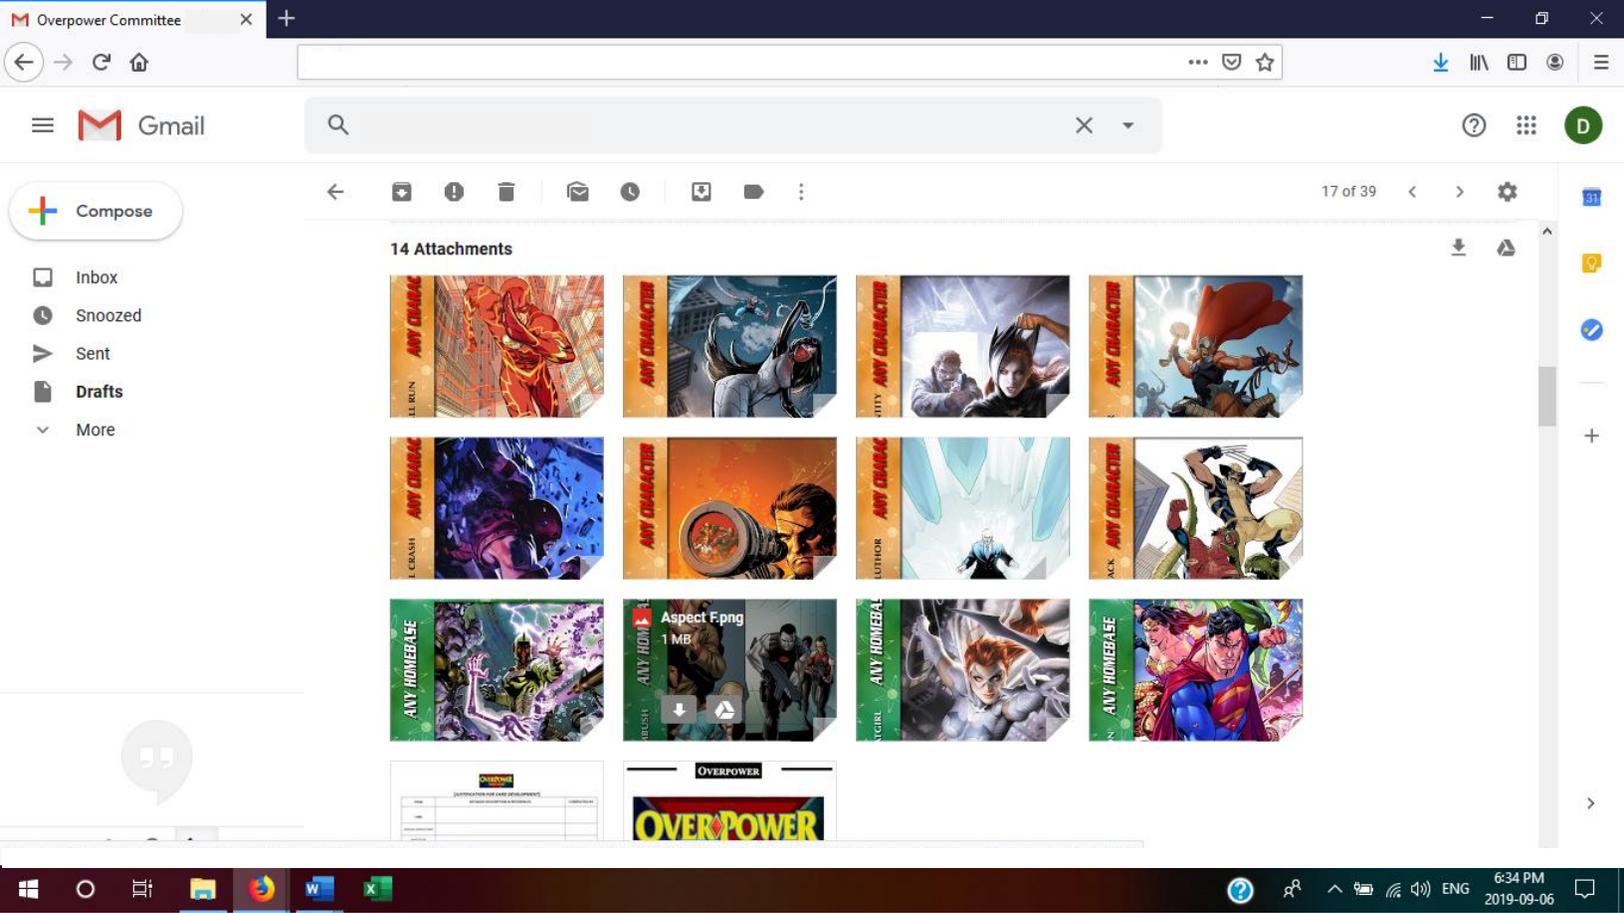

Any questions at all, please feel free to reply to all.

Try to stick to the guideline laid out in the presentation document when going over the new cards and justification sheets. Obviously the justification only needs to be filled out for one of the specials, and then give reasons for using the other icons.

Thanks,
Dan

Does anyone have the card ranking document?

On Fri, Nov 16, 2018 at 10:13 PM
No, you'd pick the icon you wanted. Players are just given wider range of options to fill out the deck

Is the idea that you could play all these any heroes in your deck at the same time? I could see letting you pick the icon you want but still only allowing 1 being more balanced.

Any Front Line Character may make 1 additional attack. OPTION 3: Acts as a level 4 Intellect attack. Any Front Line Character may make 1 additional attack. | www.OverPower.Ca |
| SIMILAR CARDS/CODES | Extrapolated From: ANY HOMEBASE; A–NEXT – Acts as a level 4 Strength attack. Any Front Line Character may make 1 additional attack. NOTE: This card is considered to be defined as Not–New; since with the exception of different icons, exact wording is available via another aspect/special in the Overpower Card Game. | www.OverPower.Ca |
| BATTLESITE HOMEBASE IMPACT | BATTLESITE/HOMEBASE: This aspect card benefits either Battlesite/Homebase style decks since a placing spot is guaranteed for the proposed cards. Introducing the option for additional icons further strengthens diversity & preference for the player in deck construction. It can be outlined that popular energy decks in official tournaments benefit from the current Any Homebase Aspect [Strength Icon]; through supporting spectrum attacking options. | www.OverPower.Ca |
| REFERENCE CHARACTER POWERS | Referenced From [JAN 3th, 2019]: http://batman.wikia.com/wiki/Mr. Toxic Extrapolated for 4 Energy Attack – Note Gas Man/Mr Toxic can release noxious gases from wrists. | PROPOSED SPECIFICS OF CARD & CHARACTER | CARD EFFECTIVENESS RATING: [1]–FAIR; [2]–MEDIUM; [3]–GOOD; [4]–EXCELLENT; [5]–ULTRA These card options are proposed to be rated as a [5]–Ultra Effectiveness; since such Any–Homebase Aspect augments different icons to support any deck spectrum variation as well as either preference of Any Hero/Battlesite. After consideration of the aforementioned characteristics & with the knowledge that this card cannot be negated; it is viewed to be utilized in every deck; thus providing further support for a rating of [5]. | www.OverPower.Ca |
| PICTURE PROPOSED FOR CARD | Referenced From [JAN 3th, 2019]: http://maxsixoverpower.com | www.OverPower.Ca |
| JUSTIFICATION FOR INCLUSION | At this time; options that mitigate the successful action of the Any Homebase Aspects in an official game include events & cards that limit certain icons/One Per Decks from being played. Since minimal negative considerations can be associated with the Any–Homebase Aspects & that it cannot be negated; rating of the card should be [5]–Ultra. Any–Homebase Aspects with different icon variety support further deck construction diversity; as paralleled with potent options associated with Power Cards & alternative icon specials. Therefore it is viewed as providing greater strength to deck variety [ie:Non–Energy Decks] thru incorporating an icon preference to the player. | www.OverPower.Ca |

Hello Phil,

To be clear, we looked at the original idea of the text being written on the card and wanted to clean it up. Only one C2 aspect is allowed in a deck.

Hope that helps,
Dan

On Tue., Jun. 4, 2019, 13:55 ,

The only thing I'm confused about is the aspect card not being a duplicate of other C2 aspects. I feel you shouldn't be able to have 2 different ones, is that what we are still saying?

It all looks fine...

I'm not sure that the activator update is really super necessary, but I see why you're pushing it.

I am more inclined to support the various icon options for the Any Homebase Aspects and the Any-Heroes 'Gamma Terror' and 'Death from Above.'

Hi Everyone –

To keep with the original time frame outlined in the Overpower Card Development Structure Template; the process is nearing the end regarding the proposed cards of Any–Hero's/ Any–Homebase & Activators. I have attached the updated justification forms outlining some of the scenario testing completed to date.

All I require from each of you as committee members at this time is to provide an email by July 26th outlining your first official Vote 1 of 2 pertaining to moving forward with the final development of the proposed cards. [Example: My Official Vote 1 of 2 – Yes/No].

Thank–you for your involvement as well as the suggestions provided to date & I look forward to receiving your emails by July 26th. I wish you a great day.

Hello Phil,

Thank you for your votes and feedback.

Regarding the Activators, we would certainly allow a short interim for the current hero cards to be used for activators. I am not expecting anyone to start dumping lots of money into the game, however the game is changing and just like the meta changes back in the day, you try to keep up with it.

These new activators do not have icons on them, so in terms of Power Leech, they would not be discards.

We are planning to have the game progress, so people will be buying new packs/boxes/singles to get the new cards that come out, just a normal progression of the game. The tournaments will be the natural drive for the game as well, and we are planning for them to become even bigger.

This set as mentioned is to make the game much easier to play and we are doing that for new and old players. Every single activator will be accessible in this set.

Any further feedback is welcomed, I hope that helps.

Thanks again!
Dan

I vote yes for the any hero and any homebase cards.

Regarding the activators, would current hero cards still be allowed to be used?
If yes, would these activators act as though they did not have icons on them? Such as for power leech etc.
If no, I could see people being upset that they have to get tons of new cards.

Hello all.

Regarding the Activators, my vote would be a provisional YES. I don't agree with phasing out existing character card use as activators, but I'm fine with a new dedicated activator card that players have the option of using instead of a character card. The advantage of the new ones being that they have no icon.

Regarding the Any Heroes AR, and AA; I'd vote YES. I believe it would be good to have each icon represented for players to make the choice based on their deck design. It must be made clear that these cards count as duplicates of other Any Hero AR and AA cards and decks are still restricted to one.

Regarding the vote for Any Homebase Aspects, as above I vote YES for the same reason as noted in the Any Heroes.

I believe I feel the same way as Sean. New activator cards are cool and I'm sure people would like them, but I can only vote yes if we don't plan to make 100s of existing playable cards (activators) unplayable.

Hello all, sorry I am late to the party!

I vote yes to moving forward with Any Hero AR cards, Any Hero AA cards, and AnyHomebase C2 cards. These add a lot of strategy to the game in terms of deck-building for spectrum K.O. and counter play against certain specials from your opponent. How could I not when I included them in my expansion! :)

I do have some mixed feelings about the activators though. This inclusion would cause a large number of cards to be added to the game. Is this small rule clarity worth adding such a large number of cards? Why not remove activators from the game completely and just have the specials from the battlesite in your deck, similar to normal specials? This has a few upsides and downsides, which I won't get into now, but I feel like it changes the way battlesites work too much to be implemented at this point. In the end, I think the existence of the activator cards, even if you don't have them in your deck, will clear up the rules a bit as playing a character card as an activator will now feel more like a proxy for the the real activator card and should clear up the confusion about not playing cards with certain icons on them. In the end, I vote yes to moving forward with the activator cards.

Great work everyone!

Hi Everyone –

It is the understanding from the feedback received that the Any-Heroes/Any-Homebase cards are agreed to move forward with the effect that each be limited to one-per-deck with respect to appropriate deck conditions [ie: Any-Hero/Battlesite] regardless of icon. As well; the new Activators are supported with the caveat that the cards are provided as an option to that of the existing Hero/Character card instead of having new Activators phase out the Hero/Character cards.

The Any-Heroes/Any-Homebase are to be limited to only one [Code] in a deck & I consider the feedback of having the new Activator cards provided as an option to be fair; thus at this time that be taken to be the premise going forward. To keep with the original time frame outlined in the Overpower Card Development Structure Template; with the understanding to move forward with the proposed cards – I realize that most of you already provided some comments with the first voting round but this is a reminder that there is one final review stage until August 23rd for this designated committee to outline any additional feedback/clarifications regarding the concept of the proposed Any-Hero's/Any-Homebase & Activator cards.

I look forward to any further feedback by August 23rd & then there be a final vote conducted as to have the cards be considered official. Thank-you for your time & I wish you a great day.

Introducing the option for additional icons further strengthens diversity & preference for the player in deck construction. It can be outlined that popular energy decks in official tournaments benefit from the current Any Homebase Aspect [Strength Icon]; through supporting spectrum attacking options. | www.OverPower.Ca |

| JUSTIFICATION FOR INCLUSION | At this time; options that mitigate the successful action of the Any Homebase Aspects in an official game include events & cards that limit certain icons/One–Per–Decks from being played. Since minimal negative considerations can be associated with the Any–Homebase Aspects & that it cannot be negated; rating of the card should be [5]–Ultra. Any–Homebase Aspects with different icon variety support further deck construction diversity; as paralleled with potent options associated with Power Cards & alternative icon specials. Therefore it is viewed as providing greater strength to deck variety [ie:Non–Energy Decks] thru incorporating an icon preference to the player. | www.OverPower.Ca |
| FEEDBACK & ALTERNATIVES | It has been suggested that the initial wording “Counts as a duplicate of all C2 aspects” be removed & that Any–Homebase Aspect be only One–Per–Deck regardless of icon variations. As well, it proposed that illustrations for the cards be of Marvel characters; since at this time effort is being exercised to update such characters. Moreover; as the original Any Homebase: A–Next; illustrates a team depiction on card perhaps as an indication for additional characters to be available for follow–up attacks – it recommended that theme be carried forward. All comments to date have been integrated into the final version of the Any–Homebase Aspect. SEE UPDATED EXAMPLES. | www.OverPower.Ca |
| [PLAY TESTING] INCORPORATE FEEDBACK & ALTERNATIVES | Limited Situational Scenario Testing was completed for different in–game circumstances that involved incorporating cards with alternative icons in a number of placement variations & draw combinations to evaluate the impact of certain amendments. The modifications required one to be more alert to in–game dynamics due to a greater variety of spectrum attacks; these options for the Any–Homebase Aspect [One–Per–Deck] provided the greatest value when compared to the alternatives associated with the Any–Characters. | www.OverPower.Ca |

I wanted to outline that there has been no additional feedback/clarifications provided for the concept of the proposed Any-Hero's/Any-Homebase & Activator cards; thus it is time to complete the last vote as to respect the Overpower Card Development Structure Template.

All that is required now since all the feedback has been summarized within the justification forms is for each of you as committee members to provide an email by September 6th outlining your final official Vote 2 of 2 pertaining to support/decline of having the Any-Hero's/Any-Homebase & Activator cards being considered official in tournaments for the OverPower Card Game. [Example: Official Vote 2 of 2 – Yes/No].

I look forward to receive your final votes by September 6th. Thank-you for all the time that you have contributed to this process & I wish you a great day.

Hello everyone,

D'Arcy and I vote yes for all.
It is acknowledged that the newly developed Activators are intended to be provided as an option to the existing character cards going forward.

Thanks,
Dan
